

Bachelor of Science in Healthcare Studies Graduation Options

Program Concentration	Occupation	Example of Employers	Average Salary (SC), 2014*	Job Growth*
Health Promotion	Community Health Worker, Community Advocate	Public health departments, Community-based organizations, Hospitals	$48,490	Much faster than average
	Health Educator, Health Coach, Worksite Wellness Coordinator		$48,390	Faster than average
	Patient Representative, Patient Navigator/Advocate, Community Care Navigator	Hospitals	NA	NA
Pre-Health Professions	Graduate Programs in the Public Health Professions (also applicable to Health Promotion concentration)
	Master in Public Health (MPH)
	Epidemiologist	Public health departments, Community-based organizations, Universities	$69,820†	NA
	Health Educator		NA	NA
	Public Health Information Officer, Health Communication Analyst		NA	NA
	Master in Health Administration (MHA)
	Medical and Health Services Managers	Hospitals, Clinics Nursing and residential care facilities, Home healthcare services	$89,220	Much faster than average
	Master of Science in Health Informatics (MSHI)
	Medical Records/Health Information Technician	Hospitals, Clinics Nursing and residential care facilities, Home healthcare services	NA	NA
	Graduate Programs in the Health Professions (Clinical focus)
	Cardiovascular Perfusionist‡	Hospitals	$109,770	Faster than average
	Occupational Therapist (OT)	Hospitals, Clinics Nursing and residential care facilities, Home healthcare services	$78,090	Much faster than average
	Physician Assistant (PA)		$84,350
Physical Therapist (DPT)	$78,650

NA: Not available; *Salary data and job growth through 2022 is from the Economic Development and Employer Planning System; †Data for 2010

‡Information on Cardiovascular Perfusionist obtained from <http://www.mayo.edu/mshs/careers/cardiovascular-perfusionist>

For more information, contact Dr. Brandi M. White at chp-bshs-info@musc.edu