

Pathologists' Assistant Studies (MS)

Program Assessment Plan

Programmatic Goal	Method of Assessment	Oversight	Outcomes	Resulting Action
Achieve and maintain consistent or higher enrollment numbers with a focus on attracting high-quality applicants and emphasizing the importance of interprofessional studies.	Annual review of interprofessional course evaluations to monitor and ensure content quality.	Program director and department faculty
Within 1 year of graduation, at least 90% of graduates will pass the American Society for Clinical Pathology (ASCP) Certification Exam	Annual review of ASCP Certification Exam scores.	Program director
Obtain a graduation rate of at least 80% per cohort of students matriculated program.	Annual data review of program completion rates as reported to the accrediting body	Program Director and Administrative coordinator
Within 6 months of graduation, at least 80% of graduates will be employed as a pathologist assistant	Review of 6-month post-graduation survey results as reported to the accrediting body.	Program Director and Administrative coordinator
Encourage and support an academic environment that promotes faculty development, including dissemination of scholarship through publication, poster, and podium presentations.	Annual faculty evaluations, Internal (OIE) outcomes, and workload discussions	Program Director, Department Chair, and CHP Dean
Maintain an extensive network of high-quality clinical sites for student rotations.	Annual faculty evaluations, student clinical site evaluations.	Education Coordinator
Promote continuous improvement in curriculum to enhance interprofessional collaboration and ensure relevance to current pathology practices.	Annual advisory board meetings and interprofessional course evaluations	Program Director		